

Kenneth J. Hopkins
Mayor

Anthony C. Moretti
Chief of Staff

March 18, 2025

Madam Clerk,

Pursuant to City of Cranston Code Section 2.08.110, Mayor Kenneth Hopkins hereby submits to the City Council the following Department head nomination subject to the Council's advice and consent:

Frank Corrao as Director of Public Works

His annual base salary will be $172,000 with a grade/step of AD 55-7.

Please refer this nomination to the Finance Committee.

Your assistance is much appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Anthony C. Moretti
Chief of Staff
City of Cranston

588 Scituate Avenue
Cranston, RI 02921

401-944-2195 (Home)
401-808-4198 (Cell)

Frank Corrao, III, PE

Accomplished, motivated and energetic leader with a solid history of achievement in Public Administration, specifically Construction Management. Skill sets include:

Administration and Management	Partnering
Complex Problem-Solving	Judgment and Decision Making
Negotiation	Building and Construction
Team Building

Experience

F-Cor Development, LLC 11/2018 to present
Owner - Residential Home Construction

- Owner of a new home construction business. Responsible for all aspects of new home construction from plan preparation, permitting, scheduling, purchasing, management of subcontractors, as well as finish carpentry.

Retired

1/2018 to present

RI Department of Transportation

Deputy Chief Engineer 7/2015 to 12/2017
Storm Water Management

- Working on EPA Consent Decree, ensure compliance with the requirements of the Decree such as 10-year funding plan, roadway ownership, compliance reporting, etc.

RI Department of Transportation

Deputy Chief Engineer 2/2005 - 7/2015
Construction Management Group

- Lead a team of approximately 190 professionals and technicians that provide the administration, inspection and quality assurance for the State's multi-million dollar transportation improvement construction program.

RI Department of Transportation

Managing Engineer/Traffic Eng. 1/2003-2/2005
Chief Civil Engineer/Traffic Engineering 1995-2002

- Provide supervision of destination signing projects, high hazard intersection program, arterial traffic signal program, isolated traffic signal construction and pavement marking projects
- Lead 9 employees who are responsible for 700+ traffic signals and intersection control beacons, including arterial systems
- Work with communities, consulting engineers and developers relative to major developments adjacent to State roadways
- Communicate with General Assembly members, Cities/Town officials, general public and local police officials on traffic engineering matters on a daily basis

- Coordinated development and expansion of ITS network including 30+ surveillance cameras, 13 dynamic message signs in Greater Providence area, remotely monitored in TMC
- Thorough knowledge of the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices, AASHTO's A Policy on Geometric Design of Highways and Streets, Traffic Calming techniques

RI Department of Transportation

1995-2005

Secretary, State Traffic Commission

- Direct supervision of State Traffic Commission consultant and State forces
- Conduct complex traffic engineering studies for all traffic control devices on State roadways
- Present results of traffic studies to Commission members at monthly meeting
- Interact with members of the General Assembly, local officials, law enforcement, general public and the media

RI Department of Transportation

1993-1995

Chief Civil Engineer/Highway Engineering

- Direct supervision of highway engineering projects and personnel
- Responsible for the engineering phase of new construction projects, reconstruction projects, rehabilitation projects and resurfacing, including drainage design, utility coordination, environmental and historical permitting
- Prepare scopes of work and evaluate consultant proposals for preliminary engineering projects
- Supervised planning personnel responsible for development of Transportation Improvement Program
- Supervised historical preservation staff, environmental engineering staff, utility engineering and landscaping design staff

RI Department of Transportation

1985-1993

Project Engineer/Highway Engineering

- Review drainage reports and requests for access to state right-of-ways
- Manage highway improvement projects from conceptual design phase to construction

Other
Experience

- Member of City of Cranston Zoning Board of Review, 2000 to 2010, 2023 to 2024
- Served on research panels for the National Cooperative Highway Research Program (NCHRP). The NCHRP provides practical, ready-to-implement solutions to pressing problems facing the industry. Areas of interest have been in Traffic Safety and Construction.

Education

1975-1979

University of Rhode Island

Kingston, Rhode Island

BS, Civil Engineering

Registration

Professional Engineer, RI, #4667

Interests

Golfing, Fitness Training