16 Daniel R. Wall, Council President

17 Resolved, that

18 WHEREAS, in the City of Cranston,

19 • The City is in need of repair, construction and rehabilitation of storm drains and 20 drainage improvements, and the remediation and mitigation of drainage and flooding problems, 21 including but not limited to $4,000,000 for such projects; and

22 • In order that a question be placed before the qualified electors of the City of Cranston at 23 the general election to be held on November 3, 2026, or, if so determined by the City Council, at 24 a special city-wide election, other than a primary, held on a date to be determined by resolution 25 or order of the City Council, seeking approval from the qualified electors authorizing the City to 26 issue bonds and notes in an amount not to exceed $4,000,000, passage of legislation by the 27 Rhode Island General Assembly during its 2026 session is essential; and

28 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Honorable City Council:

29 1. Endorses legislative action by the General Assembly that permits the aforementioned 30 city-wide ballot question; and

31 2. This resolution shall take effect upon passage and the City Clerk is directed to certify
32 the same and transmit it to the Speaker of the House, Senate President, Governor and all State
33 Senators and Representatives representing Cranston requesting passage of the necessary special 34 legislation during the 2026 session of the General Assembly of the State of Rhode Island to 35 further authorize the City of Cranston to issue said Bonds and Notes.

36 Sponsored by: Council President Daniel R. Wall and the Honorable Members of the Cranston
37 City Council
