17 Daniel R. Wall, Council President

18 Resolved, that

19 WHEREAS, in the City of Cranston,

20 • The City is in need of acquisition, construction, improvement, renovation, repair and 21 alteration of playgrounds, athletic fields and related equipment, including but not limited to 22 $4,000,000 for such projects; and

23 • In order that a question be placed before the qualified electors of the City of Cranston at 24 the general election to be held on November 3, 2026, or, if so determined by the City Council, at 25 a special city-wide election, other than a primary, held on a date to be determined by resolution 26 or order of the City Council, seeking approval from the qualified electors authorizing the City to 27 issue bonds and notes in an amount not to exceed $4,000,000, passage of legislation by the 28 Rhode Island General Assembly during its 2026 session is essential; and

29 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Honorable City Council:

30 1. Endorses legislative action by the General Assembly that permits the aforementioned 31 city-wide ballot question; and

32 2. This resolution shall take effect upon passage and the City Clerk is directed to certify
33 the same and transmit it to the Speaker of the House, Senate President, Governor and all State
34 Senators and Representatives representing Cranston requesting passage of the necessary special 35 legislation during the 2026 session of the General Assembly of the State of Rhode Island to 36 further authorize the City of Cranston to issue said Bonds and Notes.

37 Sponsored by: Council President Daniel R. Wall and the Honorable Members of the Cranston
38 City Council
